ALTHOFF IS SPIRIT

SPIRIT IS SHOWN IN MANY WAYS, AT GAMES, AT RALLIES AND HOME AND EVEN IN CLASSES. WITHOUT THIS SPIRIT, OUR DAYS HERE AT ALTHOFF MEAN LITTLE. WITH IT THEY ARE ALIVE WITH HAPPINESS AND CHEER. WE CANNOT JUST HAVE SPIRIT, WE MUST GIVE IT. YES SPIRIT MEANS LIVING AND THIS IS THE SOUL OF ALTHOFF!

Le Cercle Francais

If the Althoff Cercle Francais did nothing but cure the broken image of a weak, inactive club, a great step forward would be accomplished.

Of course, this is not all we are doing. We are an efficient team, comprised of individuals, who know what we want, who know how to achieve it, and who are going to achieve it. Our ideals are that passivity should be destroyed, that all members might profit by their efforts, that we should become a source of pride for Althoff, and that all members should continue the aged Althoff traditions of honor and service. To lay down glorious and gilded ideals is one thing; to prove them quite another. Let me demonstrate what we have done, and what we will do. Beside the mundane activities of any club, we have entered "cuisine" with Fondue Bourguignonne, a royal feast complete with guests. In the near future we will have cheese fondue and other tantalizing delicacies. We have planned excursions for sight-seeing, art museums, and we have even ordered tickets for Le Triteau de Paris' presentation of "Antigone", the Greek play answering the question of whether or not one should follow his conscience. Our meetings are filled with things to do, games, conversations, reading, dramatization, and, of course, cuisine.

We have a good start toward our goal. We are trying, and we will achieve all of the elusive goals of success.

Under the able tutelage of coaches Fizer and Stepien, the Crusaders second-year men compiled a respectable 5-4 record. Although Mr. Fizer broke his leg early in the season, the spirit of the team never broke, and the sophs rolled up impressive triumphs over such perennial powers as East St. Louis and Assumption. With determination, many of last year's sophomores will undoubtedly earn starting berths on the Crusader varsity next fall.

The freshman footballers, guided by Coaches Gagen and Schuline, compiled an honorable 5-4 record. Playing many of the area's perennial powers, the frosh managed victories over such foes as Belleville West and East and Cahokia. With a winning season under their belts, the yearlings can be expected to blossom into a top notch varsity squad by 1971.
